READ—the following papers :—

From the Inspector-General of Jails, dated 1st May 1882, No. 1715.

Certificate and report from the Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 14th July 1882, No. A.D.J.-118.

Certified that if the Government, with reference to the explanation furnished by the Superintendent of Central Jail, in his reply, No. 48, dated the 20th June 1882, accompanying, are satisfied that the duties of a Warder require a knowledge of reading and writing and that they are really such as are ordinarily performed by a superior servant (vide G.Os. noted in the margin), qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for six years, seven months, and three days, and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, a superannuation gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 24, equal to six months' pay, multiplied by the fraction $\frac{3}{4}$ ths, will be admissible under Sections 106 and 109 (a) and the proviso under Section 111 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. From the entry made opposite to No. 9 on the first page, it is clear that the application is for a superannuation gratuity. The action of this office in recommending for the grant of a reduced gratuity would be justifiable, if Government are pleased to entertain the application for that class of gratuity. But the Jail Department has also forwarded a medical certificate in support of the application and the incapacity of the applicant for further service is stated to be due to causes other than old age or natural decay from advancing years. It follows, therefore, that the application should be taken for an invalid gratuity.

3. If Government, however, be pleased to accept this view, the applicant may be granted the full amount of gratuity admissible to him under the Rules, viz., Rs. 120, as was done in the case of Mr. Fonceca, disposed of in G.O., No. 508, dated the 2nd June 1882.

4. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 10th August 1882, No. 696, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. James Cox, late

Superannuation gratuity
In my opinion the service claimed is fully established and should be admitted.

The proviso to Sec. 111 of the Code is rather ambiguous when made applicable to a case of this kind and I am sure when confronted by inadequate provisions that I doubted its application to the present case, for as I read the proviso the sum to be claimed as gratuity would be $\frac{120}{1} \times \frac{6}{30} = Rs. 24$, or a little more than one month's salary only.

The duties of a warder requires a knowledge of reading and writing.
