18TH SEPTEMBER 1882, No. 869, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From Colonel H. T. ROGERS, R.E., Superintendent, Madras Survey, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Kótagiri, 19th August 1882, No. 97-A.

In forwarding, for submission to Government, an application for compensation gratuity on behalf of S. Sarabayya, a Computer of the late Ganjam Detachment, I have the honor to bring to your notice that on his service book (herewith enclosed) being sent to this office it was found that the entry marked A had been tampered with.

2. Reference was made to the Deputy Superintendent, No. IV Party, on the subject, who stated that the service book had been with the applicant for four years, during which time the entry must have been tampered with, as, from the office copy of service book, the entry should be "indifferent." The subordinate in charge of the registers in No. IV office did not notice that there was anything peculiar in connection with the forged entry, but says it stood when received from the applicant as it now stands.

3. Mr. Merriman, late of this department, by whom the entry was made, was asked his opinion regarding the genuineness of the entry, and stated that "the words 'well qualified and trustworthy' are most certainly not in my handwriting and to the best of my recollection are not the terms that I should have thought of applying to S. Sarabayya." "I should say decidedly that the original entry made by me was 'indifferent.'"

Mr. Merriman thinks the handwriting of the false entry very much like that of one Henry who was employed in Ganjam as a Storekeeper under him. This subordinate is dead.

4. From the above it is established that the original remark "indifferent" in the Service Register has been altered, and although S. Sarabayya declares that he knows nothing of the entry having been tampered with, I am of opinion—supposing Henry to have altered the wording—that it must have been done with the knowledge of the applicant and not from animus against the applicant on the part of Henry in order to get him into trouble, as in this case the applicant would have discovered the alteration and brought it to notice. But it is more probable that the applicant forged the entry himself; of this proof is impossible.

Under the circumstances I cannot recommend S. Sarabayya for a gratuity.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 31st August 1882, No. A.D.J.-219.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for four years, eight months, and eleven days; and that a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 60, equal to four months' pay, is admissible under Sections 100 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition. The calculations have been duly verified. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under Section 100 of the Code are given by the Deputy Superintendent, Revenue Survey, in his remarks opposite to Nos. 4 and 5 in the third page of the application.

In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

It will be seen from the accompanying letter, No. 97-A, dated the 19th August 1882, that the Superintendent of Revenue Survey is not disposed to recommend the grant of any gratuity to the applicant, whom he suspects of having tampered with certain entries in his service book. With reference to the observations made on that letter, it rests with Government to decide whether the claim for gratuity should be entertained or not.

ORDER—dated 18th September 1882, No. 869, Pension.

The Government decline to grant any gratuity in this case as an entry in the service book of the applicant has clearly been tampered with.

Mr Merriman thinks the handwriting of the false entry very much like that of one Henry who was employed in Ganjam as a storekeeper under him. This subordinate is dead.

Under the circumstances, I

UNDER Sections 105 and 109/11 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Saredevi an entered. Col: Rogers in his letter (perhaps) says that in the office copy of the Service book (?) the entire Survey Party a Compensation should be "indifferent". This is not very clear. In the moriman however - late Mr: Supa under whom applicant served - denies that the words are in his hand writing & thinks he wrote "indifferent". Col: Rogers thinks a deceased subordinate wrote & recommends that no gratuity be passed. Submitted it might be as well to ask

The Govt. declines to grant any gratuity in this case as an entry in the service book of the applicant has clearly been tampered with. ~~An entry has been written in the~~ ^{scrap} ~~book~~ under the words "well qualified & trustworthy". The original entry probably was "fair writer, indifferent character."

Rank - Deputy Sahaidar and 2nd class Magistrate
Madrass District
Temperament - Nervous
Habit of body - Tall
Stature - Temporarily 33 - 34 - 35
Length of Service - 27 - 9 - 20

This Officer on appearing before me to be invalided states that since 1876 he has suffered with severe periodic attacks of Neuralgia and Fever for which he has on several occasions obtained sick leave.

In December 1880 he presented himself for treatment at the Civil Dispensary Madras and was placed under my treatment for severe Neuralgic pains chiefly confined to the right side of his face with dragging pain in his right eye-ball, which subsequently affected his vision for which I granted him two months sick leave to enable him to place himself under treatment in the Eye Infirmary at Madras. He was operated on by the Surgeon of the Eye Infirmary for Glaucoma, the operation of Iridectomy being performed; after this operation this Officer attended to his duties for some time.

For the past two or three months he has been suffering very much from Neuralgic pains in the left side of his face for which he was granted a months leave on 1st July 1882 to enable him to place himself under treatment of the Surgeon of the Eye Infirmary again.

At present there is total loss of vision of his right eye, and slight dimness of his left eye accompanied with Neuralgic pains confined to the left side of face. I therefore consider him unfit for further service and recommend that he be pensioned. I annex the usual Certificate.

(Diagnose Contracted on General Service, and not the result of his own imprudence)

Commissioner.
