18TH SEPTEMBER 1882, No. 870, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Colonel H. D. CLOETE, Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Madras, 19th August 1882, No. 4239.

I have the honor to submit, for orders of Government, an application for the grant of a gratuity on behalf of the deceased M. Jaki Peris, late a First-class Constable, No. 680, of the South Canara District.

2. He served in the Police Department for thirteen years, eleven months, and two days, and bore a "fair" character. He was on the 29th ultimo declared unfit for further service of any kind by the Medical Committee held at Mangalore at the request of the Superintendent of Police.

3. He was entitled to an invalid gratuity of Rs. (104) one hundred and four only, payable at Mangalore, according to proviso to Section 1 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules, and Sections 102 and 143 of the Civil Pension Code.

4. He died on the evening of the 1st instant. His registered legal heir is his mother Doomingava Bai.

5. The Superintendent's letter, stating the circumstances which led him to place the constable before the Committee although his life was despaired of at the time, is forwarded for reference.

ENCLOSURE.

From J. E. BOYD, Esq., Acting Superintendent of Police, South Canara, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, Madras, dated Bantwal, 14th August 1882, No. 418.

With reference to memorandum, No. 4031, of 9th instant, I have the honor to report that the Committee sat and invalidated the late First-class Constable, No. 680, Jaki Peris, at my request. For more than two years past the constable owing to an affection of the lungs caught in the service had been of little use for duty. He was placed before the Annual Invaliding Committee held in beginning of last year, but was rejected and granted six months' leave on their recommendation. On the expiration of that leave he returned to duty and remained on duty till the middle of June last when he reported sick and declined to go to hospital. Not knowing his state, and thinking he might linger for months or even years, I insisted on his going to hospital, and on his going there in middle of last month urged the Civil Surgeon who at last considered him unfit for service to invalidate him. On the morning the Committee sat I met the Civil Surgeon on his way to it; he told me the man was near his end and doubted if he should be invalidated, but I thought that at so late a stage a more liberal course would be approved, and begged the Committee would sit and invalidate the man.

No. 14.

Certified that we have carefully examined Mangalore Jaki Peris, son of Vincent Peris, a First-class Constable, No. 680, in the South Canara District. His age is by his own statement thirty-four years and by appearance about thirty-six years. We consider Mangalore Jaki

Peris to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the department to which he belongs in consequence of Bright's disease of kidneys. His incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

29th July 1882.

ORDER—dated 18th September 1882, No. 870, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 143 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to M. Jaki Peris, late First-class Constable, No. 680, of the South Canara Police Force, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (104) one hundred and four, equal to thirteen months' pay, payable at Mangalore, South Canara District, in consideration of his qualifying Police service of thirteen years, eleven months, and two days.

2. As the applicant is reported to have died on the 1st August 1882, the amount of gratuity sanctioned will, under Section 172, Rule II, of the above Code, be disbursed to his mother Doomingava Bai.
