18TH SEPTEMBER 1882, No. 873, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 30th November 1881, No. 1306, Pension.

READ—also the following papers :—

From H. M. WINTERBOTHAM, Esq., Acting Collector and Agent to the Governor, Vizagapatam, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated 28th July 1882, No. 694.

Referring to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 30th November 1881, No. 1306, Pension Department, I have the honor to forward, herewith, an

Letter from Special Assistant Agent, to the Agent to the Governor, dated 11th December 1880, No. 9. application for gratuity on behalf of Lavid Venkatakrishnamma, late First Gumastah of Nowrangapur Taluk, for his superior services amounting to thirteen years, seven months, and twenty-five days.

Letter from Special Assistant Agent, to the Agent to the Governor, dated 19th January 1881, No. 10. Letter to Chief Secretary to Government, dated 28th January 1881, No. 55. Letter to Chief Secretary to Government, dated 7th November 1881, No. 774. Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 30th November 1881, No. 1306. 2. This individual, in his capacity of public servant, committed criminal breach of trust, and is now under imprisonment: copy of the judgment in his case and the papers noted in the margin are also forwarded for reference.

3. It will be observed that the correspondence regarding this man has been going on since December 1880, and the delay in the submission of this application is due to the non-receipt till lately of the information required to complete the entries in his service register and application for pension.

ENCLOSURES.

No. 29.

The undersigned do hereby certify that I have this day personally examined Vencatakrishnamma and found that he is suffering from general debility and old age, and is about fifty or fifty-five years old. I sincerely declare, according to my judgment, he will not again recover strength, and therefore consider him unfit for further service in Government employ.

KORAPUT,
14th October 1879.

(Signed) J. BROWN,
Asst. Apothecary, Police Hospital.

Certified that I have carefully examined Lavid Venkatakrishnamma, son of Lavid Gopanna, late Head Clerk in the Nowrangapur Taluk Magistrate's Cutcherry, now a prisoner in the District Jail at Vizagapatam.

His age is, by his own statement, forty-nine years, and by appearance about fifty years. I consider Lavid Venkatakrishnamma to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in consequence of emaciation and debility.

18TH SEPTEMBER 1882, No. 873, PENSION.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

VIZAGAPATAM,
10th May 1882.

(Singed) A. N. ROGERS-HARRISON,
Civil Surgeon, Jail.

Certificate and report from the Officiating Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 19th August 1882, No. A.D.J.-200.

Certified that, should Government be pleased to accept either of the two medical certificates forwarded in support of the application, the one bearing the proper date (14th October 1879) signed by a Non-Commissioned Medical Officer, which is also not in accordance with the form prescribed, or the other signed by a Commissioned Medical Officer, but dated nearly thirty-one months after the applicant ceased to do duty, qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for thirteen years, seven months, and twenty-five days; and, subject to the remarks below recorded, an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 240, equal to twelve months' pay, will be admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant was degraded in August 1865 from an appointment in a superior grade to one in an inferior grade for refusing to accept a certain appointment offered to him, and that he absented himself without leave from 7th to 14th March 1867, and from 9th to 14th May 1870, and that he was out of employ from 30th August to 20th September 1872, in consequence of his transfer from one taluk to another. It rests with Government to condone the breaks under the powers vested in them (vide Rule 7, Sections 93, 98, and 118 of the Code).

3. It will be seen further from the accompanying papers that, after submission of the application, the applicant was convicted of serious crime, and that he was therefore sentenced to fine and imprisonment by the Special Assistant Agent, Vizagapatam. It rests with Government to decide whether, with reference to the provisions of Section 173 of the Civil Pension Code, the claim for gratuity should be entertained.

4. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter, No. 694, dated 28th July 1882, accompanying.

5. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 18th September 1882, No. 873, Pension.

The Government decline to grant any gratuity in this case, the applicant having been convicted of criminal breach of trust.

2. The delay which has occurred in submitting the application is not satisfactorily explained.

No 200 ADP Certified that should Government be pleased to accept either of the two Medical Certificates forwarded in support of the application, the one bearing the proper date (14th October 1879) signed by a sworn Commissioner (Medical Officer) which is also not in accordance with the form prescribed, or the other signed by a Commissioner (Medical Officer) but dated nearly 31 months after the applicant ceased to do duty, qualifying service in Superior Grade would be duly proved for 13 years 7 months and 25 days; and subject to the remarks below recorded, an Invalid's Gratuity not exceeding Rs 240 a equal to 12 months pay will be admissible under Section 102 & 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code 1882.

It will be seen from the History of Service that the applicant was degraded in August 1865 from an appointment in a Superior Grade to one in the Inferior Grade for refusing to accept a certain appointment offered to him, and that he absented himself without leave from 7th to 14th March 1867 and from 9th to 14th May 1870 and that he was out of employ from 30th August to 20th September 1872 in consequence of his transfer from one Station to another. It rests with Government to condone the breach under the powers vested in them (vide rules 7 section 93 section 98 and Section 118 of the Code).

It will be seen further from the accompanying papers that after submission of the application the applicant was convicted of various crimes and that he was therefore sentenced to prison, and imprisonment by the Special Assistant Agent Magistrate (Muzaffargarh) District with Government to decide whether with reference to the provisions of Section 173 of the Civil Pension Code, the claim for gratuity should be entertained.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter to be dated 28th July 1882 accompanying.

In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.
