From Act. Res! Tanager
19 Dec -

Concubine with experience to men

There can be no question in the justice or propriety of what is here recommended in the abstract - The only fear, it is to be feared is that any depart-

-ture from the course
hitherto pursued,
may by some persons ingenuously be considered in the manner of bringing Gov. again before the Supreme Court - when for the present at least it is my desire that they

24
should not go - no consideration in connection with this by a morning trip to go on as a present for a few weeks longer.
JPS

I had upon the evening before Mr. Phillips an ~~interview~~ ~~interview~~ with the ~~President~~ and ~~with~~ ~~with~~ him - ~~that~~ ~~that~~

The East has up to this time ~~stand~~ the unknown with me in full - night

Watch every thing belonging to the Reg. or formally taken over there is an opening for such a construction

~~being put in such a~~ ~~position as to be~~ paying in the past and they are not of the
which is not possible at the present time

I have not the draft order and the Co's collector for the Mission - the should certainly be cautious to avoid any thing that could be rightly so:

expected to by the Supreme Court, but I am not sure that disbursing salaries & allowances to the Maharaja's family and Durbar is not ~~interfering~~ interfering intermeddling with the affairs and I am inclined to think that all disbursements from the Treasury of the State should cease in strict obedience to the Instructions

The legal opinion. Mr. [Signature]

[illegible]

Is nothing to be done in this matter, — It will not be advisable to touch the Funds that are at present in the Treasury of His late Highness or to make payments of current charges from them —
But some restriction should be placed on the monthly remittances from the collectors Treasury — at pre-

62
I believe, the same amount is submitted to the Treasury of the late King as was sent in his life time - The actual disbursements must have been considerably reduced, indeed this is shown by the account-
-tion which was exhibited in the King's Treasury - I think

63
should in future be limited to the actual requirements of that instead of a fixed sum being disbursed by the Collector. He should submit only such a
- amount as the Court may name and that the Court should be instructed to intimate to the Collector every month the sum sufficient to meet

The actual Balance
disbursements — It appears to me that this matter should be disposed of before a motion is made under the existing orders

From the above letter it would appear that since the death of the late Rajah a sum of Rs 2,59,023 has accumulated in the Residency Treasury, in consequence of the monthly remittances from the Collector, which have continued to be made at the same rate as when H. Rajah was alive, being greatly in excess of the sums required for current expenditure - that is for the allowances of the members of the Family, salaries of officers & servants and other charges. The Officer in Charge of the Residency has requested me in reference to the late Injunction wherein the present total sum of
 - Rs 3,71,584 - as reported by the Actg. Comm. Residency
