of G. A. Government Agents Office
From 24th December 1856.

Surgeon C. G. Bulfinch
Government Agent at Chesham
To J. Pycroft Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George

Sir,

I have the honor to represent to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council that the time and care required to superintend the examination of the Circar records and for their custody exceeds any thing that I could have expected from the simple character of the duty, as ordered in Extract Minutes of Consultation dated 22nd November 1859 of 1856. —

I solicit permission, should there not be any objection thereto, to remove this Office temporarily to one of the apartments in Chesham Palace, as doing so would give me much much more time at Command.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

O du Mayne
Government Agent

Govt Agent Office
