No. 66. Tanjore
26th January 1857.

From

H. D. Phillips Esquire
Acting Collector & Commissioner of Tanjore

To,

J. Pycroft Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

Extract Collr. Tanjore 16th January 1857 Para 2.

I have the honor to report that having made the earliest practicable arrangements for proceeding to Tanjore in order to relieve Mr. H. Forbes from the duties on which he was recently employed, I reached Trainquebar at about 3. in the afternoon of the 16th instant, halted there for such time, as was necessary to take charge of the District Treasury, and at once proceeded by Dâuk to Tanjore

Under these circumstances I have the honor to request that the Government would be pleased to sanction my drawing the usual travelling allowance for the distance between Trangambar and Tanjore, should there appear to be no objection to the extension of the rules.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most Obt. Servant
