No 391/1857.

Prepared for the Report of the Agent

By order of the Agent

By S. J. P. P.

That the people of Madras would not grant the Nabol any money upon his own signature but offered to do so if two of the Dewans' sons would sign the receipt but Mahomed Sher Boolah states that this is the only transaction in which he ever was engaged.

Gholam Mahomed states that he and Salar ool Moolk were the Agents for all borrowings and that the others merely put their names without knowing why or for what purpose but that he has no document from the Nabol to show that this amount ever reached His Highness and that his own Accounts as Naib of the Private Secretary are his only vouchers.

Assuming the above statements to be correct it will appear that these individuals, one of whom Gholam Mahomed is the Sheriff Dewlah Bahadour who was so much engaged in all the reckless borrowings of the Nabol, were not personally borrowing this amount but were mere name lenders to enable the Nabol to borrow.

Under these circumstances
it

41
it is not at all necessary for Sojammul Salah to require Government to bring Salar ool Moolk Bahadour within the jurisdiction of the British Courts on such a case as this, as he can summon any of the other three who are not exempt, each of the four being individually responsible, and obtain a decision in his case.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
