Government as they stood on the 1st January 1857

Remains as Extracted from the Return forwarded from the Revenue Commissioners

From the Report of the Inspector General of Prisons at London, it appears that no charge of Prisoners has been placed with the date of the previous Report.

Prisoners of 1857 from the Revenue Government should and has no other support

This Prisoner appears to be on the receipt of a gratuity of 1000, averaging a few Payers monthly derivable from the Superintendent of the Prison. It is a small sum for 1000 but payable by the Government.

Mr. B. W. Morris who was on the receipt of a Pension of 1000 and a Mother's Pension of 1000 for her services in the 9th January 1857. The latter party having died on the 19th January 1857 her Pension has ceased to Government. Mrs. B. W. Morris and her family is unmarried and does not appear to have any other means of subsistence than the Pension suggested by her.

The Pensioner who claims a British Pension of 1000 and a Mother's Pension of 1000 for her services in the 9th January 1857. The latter party having died on the 19th January 1857 her Pension has ceased to Government. Mrs. B. W. Morris and her family is unmarried and does not appear to have any other means of subsistence than the Pension suggested by her.

It appears to have taken place in these Prisoners' circumstances since the last report, and they have no resources independent of the Pension allowed to them by Government.
