late Saeed-oon-Mirza Begum. Their pensions lapse with their lives but any arrears which may have accumulated from the date of Jan.
1857 when the arrangement was ordered to have effect to the date of their deaths will be paid by the Agent to their heirs if they choose to take <sup>money</sup> ~~them~~ within a reasonable time - otherwise they will be carried to the credit of Government.

The two others are members of the Carnate family and had stipends assigned them as such.
Parsha Begum being the Mithah widow and Mahomed Ali Khan
the Mithah grandson of the former servant

Bahadur. In regard to the first the Agent states that as she drew her stipend solely in consideration of her being Mithah widow of the above Nawab all or nearly all of her stipend will lapse to the State. and in respect to the second that his family are not worthy of that consideration to which the Government however do not consider that the orders of the Supreme Govt for the increase in to the allowance of Mahomed Ali Khan can be carried whatever it may be proper to continue to his family must be some
actually granted him Rs 1200 per in favor of the latter of India 8th Sept. last.

The Agent will therefore report upon the circum-

each of the deceased parties respectively, and what
not exceeding <sup>in each case</sup> a moiety for the maintenance of themselves. He therefore recommends that the
