no observations on recent ^{civil} appointments;
in the attendance of the 19th week ~~of the~~
some to be rally in worthy of notice.

Wm. L. G.

Many of the "structures" are so absurd and so contrary to the facts of the case, that I have no doubt they have been employed simply as a peg on which to hang the case of W. Perry who occupies the most prominent place in the article.

With regard to that gentleman the remarks made ^{in relation} on his ~~past~~ communications received from him & for the ^{present} ~~former~~ during the last few months ^{suffice} to show that his ~~performance~~ ^{performance} of his duties both in the political & revenue departments were not considered satisfactory.

I consider his removal from that district at the present juncture as a measure calculated to promote the public interests. An officer of prudence, discretion, & ~~activity~~ ^{activity} & full sentiment is required to carry out the arrangements connected with the extension of the Tanco & Rappahannock recent proceedings exhibited a November 2. 1861 the deferring of these matters. Mr. Phillips is entirely reliable as to both the expense of them at his hands. He is in my opinion the best man available to whom the interests of the Province could have been entrusted.

Not independent of considerations connected with the Reg., I am of opinion that Mr. Perry's proposed proceedings showed little aptitude for dealing with the peculiar system of appointment prevailing in England & which rendered it rather for deterioration whether on the occurrence of a permanent vacancy, he was fit to be charged with the permanent administration of the District. Allan Mills

Mr Cherry conducted matters

It is from the fact

him in carrying out the very important duty with which the Govt. has entrusted him.

from Government marginally noted, I have the honor to submit an explanation which seems called for with reference to the opinion in respect of my proceedings that has been expressed by Mr. Boyson the Honorable Company's Solicitor, in his letter to the Government dated the 10 instant.

Para 4.

2. Mr. Boyson observes I think it would have been better if Mr. Phillips had not sealed up those cloths and drapes in the Zundarkhana which the late Commissioner had left available for use.

by

by the Members of the late Rajah's family."

3. Mr. Boyson's opinion on the above point is founded, I beg to state, on an erroneous assumption. I did not seal up any cloths of the kind supposed by Mr. Boyson. The late Commissioner had caused the most valuable cloths of the several wardrobes to be packed up and placed aside, in a spot to which his Seal was duly affixed and they are now there. Of the residue of the wardrobe, the less valuable portion has remained, as I have endeavored to explain in my former letter, under charge of the Sirkar and under his seal, but accessible both to himself and his Subordinates without my knowledge. A further portion ~~was~~ for use by the Members of the ~~Rajah's~~ family has also been in the Sirkar's hands available for distribution according to the custom of the Palace, as necessity arises, but this portion, I have the honor to explain, is wholly distinct from that which I placed under seal.

None of the bundles of cloths in

in the store room that I sealed up will be required by the Rajah's family and therefore are better under my lock and key than that of the person who previously had them in his charge.

I have the honor to be
