From the Honorable Company's Solicitor; to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated September 3rd 1857, No. 492.

SIR,

With reference to the Extracts from Minutes of Consultation noted in the margin, I have the honor to solicit instructions as to the maximum amount which
M. C. dated 10th March 1857, I am to bid, on behalf of Government, for the premises called the
No. 207, Political Department. "Roshun Baug" and mentioned in the last noted Extract.
A description of the premises is inserted in the Fort St.
M. C. dated 1st September George Gazette, at page 363.
1857, No. 704, Political I would beg to suggest that the Chief Engineer and the Department. Collector of Chingleput be called upon for valuations of the premises, and for their opinions as to the purposes for which the premises could be made available, or the mode in which they could be dealt with (by sub-division and re-sale or otherwise) in the event of Government becoming the purchasers.

The claim of Rajah Coondun Lall (as mortgagee and Plaintiff) for Principal, Interest, and Costs of Suit, &c., will amount to from 30,000 to 31,000 Rupees or thereabouts.

The sale will take place on Monday, the 7th Instant, at 11 o'clock.

(Signed) J. R. BOYSON,

Honorable Company's Solicitor.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be communicated to the Chief Engineer and Collector of Chingleput, who will furnish as early as practicable valuations of the premises known as "Roshun Bagh," near the Marmalong Bridge, and state for what public purposes the premises could be made available, or in what manner they could be otherwise disposed of to advantage, if purchased by Government.
