SIR,

No. 1251. I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of the 7th Instant, in which you mention that you have been good enough to draw the attention of the Nizam's Government to the state of the border near Rajahmundry.

The Magistrate of that Province still reports that some Hill Chiefs along the frontier have collected men and are making disturbances within his District. He says that they are assisted not by Rohillahs but by the spearmen of a Zemindar within the Nizam's Territory. The name of this person is not however given, and as soon as I learn this and other particulars I will again address you.

Acting Chief Secretary.
