The humble Petition of Siddy Pulwan, Jamadar in the service of the late Nabob of the Carnatic.

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

Your poor and humble Petitioner begs to mention the following circumstances for your Lordship's favorable consideration.

That your Petitioner three weeks ago presented a Petition to the Government Agent at Chepauk, soliciting to re-continue the stopped Pension of your Petitioner's Son, with the Statement of your Petitioner's and his Son's having hereditary rights in the Carnatic Sircar, but the said Government Agent graciously pleased with an Endorsement, which is herewith enclosed for your Lordship's favourable perusal, with a hope that your Lordship in Council will accept with the above reasonable request of your Petitioner, in consideration of his being a Slave of the Circar and his having hereditary rights.

Under these circumstances your Petitioner solicits that your Lordship in Council will graciously be pleased to consider your Petitioner's reasonable case, and to bring in your Lordship's favourable perusal the contents of the same Petition and of the Government Agent's Endorsement, and will issue an order to the said Government Agent to re-continue the stopped Pension of your Petitioner's Son, as the other Slaves of the Circar and their Sons, who are favoured by Government with their Pension. For which act of kindness and mercy your Petitioner and his large family will in duty bound, and will give a good name to the Honorable Government.

Shall ever Pray.

Government Agent's Office, 2nd September 1857.

No. 45. ORDER THEREON, No. 993; dated 24th November 1857.

It appears here that the Government Agent has struck out from the List of Carnatic dependants recommended for Stipends, the name of Petitioner's young Son, on the ground that the Pension assigned to Petitioner for his own services is ample for the support both of himself and his Son.

2. The son, it is observed, was a "Slave of the Sircar" and in that capacity drew an allowance of Rupees 3-8 per mensum. The Government directed generally that all these "Slaves" should be maintained till their 18th year. Dr. Balfour will accordingly restore the boy's name to the list, with payment of arrears. The claims of individuals must be dealt with on their merits, irrespective of the condition of the applicant's relatives. This view has been ruled in all previous cases of a similar nature.
