A MADRAS,

No. 22.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose for your perusal, a letter from the Comtesse de Rollat, asking me to obtain for her, copy of certain letters and Lists, relating to certain English Prisoners, confined by Tippoo Sahib, in the Mysore country, during the Seringapatam War.

I am not aware if the request of the Comtesse be of a nature that can be complied with, and in forwarding it, I must express my regret that it should refer to matters so remote as necessarily to occasion considerable trouble in searching for the information desired.

Accept, Sir, the expression of my sentiments of the highest consideration.

20 JANVIER 1858.

MONSIEUR LE CONSUL,

J'ai recours à votre obligeance pour obtenir la copie de plusieurs lettres qui se trouvent inscrites sur les registres du Fort St. George a Madras.
