Shaik Teepoo, } son of Shaik } Madar. }	Puckally.	R. A. P. 6 0 0	{ 19th Zee- hujjah 1267.	{ Being admitted in right of his bro- ther Peer Ma- homed, he takes 4½ Rs. to himself and pays 1½ Rs. to his widow.

In List T, Department Hoozoor Meersanany, sent to Government in my letter,
No. 85 of 20th December 1855, was an entry
as per margin* of a woman.

2. On now examining the Records of the Sircar, it appears that this woman was ordered from the date of her husband's demise to receive Rupee one Annas eight per mensem, and the Records also shew subsequently that this amount was paid to herself direct as the widow of a servant.

3. It appears to me under these circumstances she can be regarded but as a pensioner proper, and if this view be taken of her case by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, I have the honor to submit for sanction Progressive List, No. 37, which will ultimately be incorporated with permanent List, No. 5, Part I.

No. 12. ORDER THEREON, No. 235; dated 1st April 1858.

Government concur in the view taken of the case of Kassim Bee, widow of the late Peer Mahomed, and direct that the pension payable to her be entered in the List, No. 5, Part I.
