Vide Diary, dated 23rd February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan of Cochin that he has addressed the necessary communication to the Cochin Appeal Court as regards Petitioner's prayer that one of them may be made the Supplementary Prosecutor in the case.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 210, from Chory Varedop and others of Vypeen.

Vide Diary, dated 18th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that on referring to the Survey Accounts of the Village, he finds that the average rate per tree is proportionately alike and that he has had no complaints of the kind from any Ryot of other Villages. Petitioners have therefore no just cause for complaint.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 200, from Bava-jee of Canianore.

Vide Diary, dated 15th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that as soon as some of the dependants who have taken refuge at Eddapully have been apprehended and handed over to the Authorities here, the case shall be finally brought to a close.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 293, from Pyley Andray of Cochin.

Vide Diary, dated 4th March 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that having learnt from enquiry that Petitioner's Statement is a fact, he ordered the Tahsildar of Cochin to report to him should a recurrence of the visit take place.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 273, from Ealom Shungren and Cheriathoo of Vatarpully.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that the cases alluded to in the Petition have been handed over to the Court.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 297, from Sree Krishna Dausa Bhawradikel, alias Munjaputta Swamiar of Trichoor.

Sree Krishna Dausa Bhawradikel, alias Munjaputta Swamiar of Trichoor, is informed that the Resident learns from the Dewan of Cochin that he has himself visited the Building in question, and made personal enquires.

10th March 1858.—With the Swamiar's Carasthen and made suitable arrangements to avoid any just cause of complaint from the opposite party.

11th March 1858.—Endorsement on Petition, No. 280 from Govinda Munnadiar of Chittoor.

Vide Diary, dated 1st March 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that the case was thoroughly examined in 1019 by the late Dewan, who at last arrived at the conclusion of confirming Petitioner's title to his property in question on the strength of a copy of the original Teetooram which has been secured amongst the records.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 294, from Cochoo Kristna Menon, Coonchy Amma and others of Trichoor.

Vide Diary, dated 4th March 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that the Documents of the family property the Petitioner's Uncle had were handed over to the junior members, who seemed to be quite satisfied with the arrangement; that the building alluded to was occupied always by Rama Menon, and under these circumstances he sees no grounds to comply with the Petitioners' request.

12th March 1858.—Endorsement on Petition, No. 252, from Nicklos Lewis of Pulloorthy in Cochin.

Vide Diary, dated 26th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Dewan that the reclaimed piece of Garden alluded to in the Petition has been ordered to be assessed in the Name of the Sircar till the rightful claimant to it shall have been established.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 228, from Pimpoy, widow of the late Rama Mullen Chellan of Cochin.

Vide Diary, dated 20th February 1858.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 248, from Coon-jetty Menon of Nettoor Poverty in Canianore.

Vide Diary, dated 26th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Appeal Court that the Defendant in the Suit, No. 29 of 1032, gave in his reply that the property in question has already been transferred by a Teroo to Paramashooren Putter Surwathy Cariakar, who was in consequence inserted a joint Defendant, that the case is pending examination and would be decided as soon as possible.

That another Suit involving dispute of the property called Caraparamboo, &c., between Petitioner and opposite party, has been decided in favor of the complainant.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 224, from Anthy Sanjon of Cochin.

Vide Diary, dated 20th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Appeal Court that as the Petitioner failed to bring the Documents in question within the respite allowed him, they passed a decision on the case.

Endorsement on Petition, No. 265, from Thommy Cheekoo of Canianore.

Vide Diary, dated 27th February 1858.

The Resident learns from the Appeal Court, that as they found it reasonable that the other property (except the dwelling house) pointed out by the Petitioner should be attached and disposed of in execution of the Decree, and that the sale of the house by public Auction could be enforced only if claims be established on the property intended to be attached, orders have been accordingly issued to the Anjeekaimal Zillah Court.
