SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith a [illegible] received from A. M. Ritchie, Esq., Solicitor for the Plaintiffs in the suit mentioned in the margin, and to request that I be furnished with a certified copy of the "List of jewels" therein referred to for delivery to Mr. Ritchie.

Prince Azeem Jah Bahadoor, Administrator, &c.

2. The object of the Suit is the due Administration and the Decree and order of the Court for the property and Estate of the late Syed Oonissa Begum and the Plaintiffs consider that the List in question may and probably will throw light on the matter and their Solicitor is [illegible] procuring the jewels and ensuring a due account of them.

3. I trust in hope that this application to Government will have been [illegible] Honorable Secretary to Prince Azeem Jah's affording the required information and [illegible] Secretary will be [illegible] and left in the Master's Office, but such [illegible] not been made so far as I have been able to learn, is likely to be the case.

Letter A. M. RITCHIE, Esq., to J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Honorable Company's Solicitor, dated 14th August 1858.

Gunsham Doss, and others, creditors of Syed Oonissa Begum, deceased.

Prince Azeem Jah Bahadoor, Administrator, &c.

SIR,

The Governor in Council having sanctioned on the suggestion of the Defendant under Act XVI of 1857, this Suit being instituted, I feel satisfied that no difficulties will be thrown in the way of the Plaintiffs in discovering the Assets of the late Syed Oonissa Begum. The Defendant [illegible] answer makes no mention of any jewels as left by his deceased's mother, but I am informed that Azeem ul Moolk Bahadoor, shortly after Syed Oonissa Begum's death, submitted a List of her jewels to the Government shewing their value, and with which they were mortgaged. [illegible] I feel sure it will [illegible] and should be much assisted in prosecuting this Suit on behalf of the creditors if you will procure for me a certified copy of this list.

Order thereon, No. 611, dated 16th September 1858.

Let a copy be communicated to the Government Agent at Chenpauk, who will furnish a copy of the List of jewels therein referred to. Should he have such a List on his records, or any information that he can give respecting it.

Signed T. PYCROFT,

Chief Secretary.
