Memo :—Transferred to the Dewan for disposal.
Urzee from Purvoy, the Widow, and children of the late Babooloo Wathiar, No. 1416. With reference to previous Petitions, complain of the non-disposal of their case.

Memo :—In forwarding the accompanying Petition to the Dewan, the Resident has to express his surprize at the delay to dispose of the case.

7th September 1858.—Endorsement on Petition, No. 965 of 1858, from Shungoony Menon, Tahsildar of Trichoor.
The Dewan reports that on a full personal enquiry and investigation of the case in question, it was clearly proved that a deficiency to a large amount existed in the Cash Chest, and that the Petitioner afterwards gave in false Statements in explanation. That for such highly culpable conduct in an Officer holding so responsible post, the Regulations of the Sirkar require that the case should be transferred to a Law Court for trial; and which has accordingly been ordered.

* Vide Diary, dated 3rd August 1858.

7th September 1858.—Endorsement on Petition, No. 963 of 1858, from Itti Mathco and others of Trichoor.

* Vide Diary, dated 2nd August 1858.

Fort Saint George, Political Consultation, 12th October 1858.

The Dewan reports that he has cautioned the Individual complained against in the Petition and that orders were issued to see that no supply is collected without adequate payment.

Endorsement on Petition,* No. 539 of 1858, from Pylee Anthay of Ernacollum.

The Dewan reports that arrangements have already been made that the Garden should continue in possession of Coonjee Kundan which has been repeatedly made known to the Petitioner.

* Vide Diary, dated 11th May 1858.
