Solicitor; and authorize the necessary communication being made to Mr. Ritchie.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 34  | From the Chepauk Agent...               | 23rd April. | Forwards a communication from Mr. Wilkins, Solicitor, bringing to notice the endeavours that have been made for taking the opinion of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council regarding Prince Azeem Jah's exemption from the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court at Madras.                                                                                                   |
| 35  | To the Government of India.             | 27th April. | Communicate the above correspondence.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 36  | From the Honorable Company's Solicitor. | 26th April. | Submits the opinion of the Advocate General on the sufficiency of the security offered by Messrs. Richardson and Co. for the advance applied for by the Firm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 37  | Order thereon.....                      | 27th April. | Resolve to accede to the request of the Firm; and instruct the Honorable Company's Solicitor to prepare a Bond to the effect suggested by the Advocate General, in his opinion, which being duly executed by Messrs. Richardson and Co., and the Title Deeds of the several properties deposited, and formal assignment of them made, orders will be given for the payment of the advance. |
