*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department,
from 9th to 15th July 1859.*

No. 15. Read the following letter from Major P. T. SNOW, Assistant Government Agent at Chepauk; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 17th June 1859, No. 1006.

In obedience to the orders conveyed in the Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 353 of 8th June 1859, I have the honor to report to the Honorable the Governor in Council the actual duties of Misbah Oollah Khan during the life time of the Nabob, viz:

25th August 1839. Entertained as Deputy Steward at Hyderabad, on Rupees 50 per mensem.

1st October 1844. Appointed Steward on Rupees 60 „ „
1850. Arrived at Madras.

2nd July 1850. Salary increased to 100 Rupees.

6th February 1851. „ 145 „

6th November 1851. „ 200 „ this amount he was in receipt of at date of Nabob's demise.

2. The following occupations were held by him at Madras without additional salary during the life time of the Nabob.

viz:

Nudeemi Khas, or companion of His Highness the late Nabob.

Darogah of Kitchen.

„ of Goldsmith Department.

„ of Zoological.

Superintendent of Dast-i-Khas affairs or private expenses of the Nabob.

3. Misbah Oollah Khan was in charge of landed property and buildings at Hyderabad valued at about 47,232 Rupees, the receipts from which amount to Rupees 2,570 per annum.

4. His salary of 200 Rupees was paid out of the Revenues of the Jageer at Hyderabad until the resumption thereof by the Nizam's Circular in 1856.

No. 16. ORDER THEREON, 9th July 1859, No. 412.

From the above, and the previous letter from the Assistant Agent, it would appear, that Misbah Oollah Khan was first entertained by the late Nawab in August 1839, as Deputy Steward at Hyderabad, on a salary of Hyderabad Rupees 50 per mensem, which in October 1844, was raised to Rupees 60 payable from the Nabob's Jaghire in the Hyderabad Country. The property of which he had charge is valued at about Rupees 47,232 and the receipts from it were Rupees 2,570 per annum, or Rupees 214-2-8 per mensem.

2. In 1850 he arrived in Madras and had various Offices, apparently chiefly honorary, about the person of the Nabob or in his household, conferred upon him. His salary was gradually increased from Hyderabad Rupees 60, to Hyderabad Rupees 200 a month, payable as before from the resources of the Hyderabad Jaghire.

3. In October 1855, the Nabob died, and on his death the Jaghire at Hyderabad was resumed by His Highness the Nizam. Misbah Oollah Khan has since drawn only Hyderabad Rupees 60 per mensem on account of the Hyderabad property, Rupees 47,232 of which he still continues in charge.

4. The Government cannot see that he is entitled to more. He held his appointments at Madras, whatever they may have been, for a very few years. He has now reverted to his original duties and salary, but the latter has to be disbursed from the public Treasury, the source from which it was previously defrayed having ceased to be available.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, from 9th to 15th July 1859.

5. Under these circumstances the Governor in Council cannot accede to the application for arrears. Misbah Oollah Khan will continue to draw his present allowance whilst he retains charge of the Hyderabad property. When that is taken possession of by the Receiver of the Carnatic Property, his case will be considered according to the instructions laid down by the Government of India.
