No. 9. Proceedings of the Madras Government dated 29th August 1859, No. 514.

When a Commissioner was appointed in September 1856, to wind up the affairs of the late Tanjore Raj, he was allowed the following establishment.

	Rupees.
1 Manager or Head Writer.....	120
1 Translator.....	50
1 Writer.....	20
1 Do.....	15
4 Gumáshtas..... at 7	28
	Rupees... 233

2. The above establishment is still continued and the Collector has besides in his capacity of Resident or as he is now styled Agent, an establishment amounting to Rupees 260.

3. The Government request that Mr. Cadell will inform them whether the old Agency establishment, with possibly some modification of its details, would not suffice for all the work now required to be performed in connection with the family and dependents of the late Rajah, and the Commissioner's establishment be dispensed with, or at all events whether that establishment might not be much reduced now, in view to its entire discontinuance when the Tanjore affairs are finally settled, after judgment shall have been given by the Privy Council in the matter of Kamatchee Boyee versus the East India Company.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

My dear Sam Michael Yes: I think so. At the word "suffice" free
might add "or nearly so" I supposed to add three sets of servants - one for each of the three departments of the cabinet. Rajkumar Venkat-Rao will be worse to none, but as he cannot now sign
his own name & there signatures

do appear on the account
seen as his; are his sons,
he should be repaid
or withdrawn. I found him an incubus from his first days of my taking charge but he has been a good servant in awkward matters and deserves the pleasure
he will at all times.

Very sincerely yours
W. D. Allen
