From

D. Grant Esqrs
Collector of Malabar.

To

Major H. Druce
Asstt Resident in Charge
Shewandrum.

Sir,

N^o 2091.

With reference to your letter of the 24th Instant and enclosure, I have the honor to state that under the circumstances alluded to, I should not feel justified in exempting from the levy of Import Duty the Salt referred to by the Dewan.

I have, &c.

From

Lieut^t General M. Cullen
Resident of Travancore & Cochin

To

J. Tyeroff Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort St George.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that the Cochin Sirkar Salt Contractor, one Ellie Rabby, brought his annual supply from Bombay in two British Vessels. One Vessel anchored and landed its Salt at the Sirkar Port of Mallipoor^{um}; but in consequence of the difficulties and delay in landing it at Mallipoor^{um}, the other Vessel landed its cargo in British Cochin.

2. The Contractor has requested that the Salt may be permitted to be removed to Mallipoor^{um} by Backwater free of duty. The demand appears reasonable, but having been refused by the Collector of Malabar, as per annexed copy of correspondence, I have the honor to submit the matter for the disposal of Government.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Political Department, dated 7th December 1859.

Read the following letter from Lieutenant-General W. CULLEN, Resident of Travancore and Cochin; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated Quilon, 29th November 1859, No. 104.

I have the honor to report that the Cochin Circar Salt contractor, one Ellia Rabby, brought his annual supply from Bombay in two British vessels. One vessel anchored and landed its Salt at the Circar port of Mulliappooram; but in consequence of the difficulties and delay in landing it at Mulliappooram, the other vessel landed its cargo in British Cochin.

2. The contractor has requested that the Salt may be permitted to be removed to Mulliappooram by backwater free of duty. The demand appears reasonable, but having been refused by the Collector of Malabar, as per annexed copy of correspondence, I have the honor to submit the matter for the disposal of Government.

From P. GRANT, Esq., Collector of Malabar; to Major H. DRURY, Assistant Resident in charge, Trevandrum, No. 2091.

With reference to your letter of the 24th instant and enclosure, I have the honor to state that under the circumstances alluded to, I should not feel justified in exempting from the levy of import duty the Salt referred to by the Dewan.
