No. 25. Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 27th February 1860, No. 104.

The Government have been given to understand, that the 13th Regiment N. I., in march from Negapatám to Trichinopoly was, under orders of the Magistrate of Tanjore, pushed forward to Tanjore, and halted there for some days during the marriage of the young Ranee.

2. They request that Mr. Cadell will explain under what circumstances he applied for the services of the Regiment—how long it was detained at Tanjore, and why no report was made to Government as required by Extract Minutes of Consultation, 25th March 1825.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
