2. I trust to be able shortly to report the complete settlement of all such claims against Her Highness.

MY DEAR SIR,

In returning the accompanying 100 Petitions received with your several letters for my just consideration, I, with my compliments, have the honor to inform you that the claims of these parties have already been settled; I further beg to report that besides this, about 99 persons have already been paid their just arrears and their receipts obtained, if required I will submit them; and, also, I beg to apprise you that prior to these payments I had already settled the claims of the arrears of 199 persons, amounted to Rupees 70,000, and obtained receipts from them.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) E. G. BALFOUR,
Government Agent.
