Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 22nd June 1860.

No. 73. Read the following letter from J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 16th June 1860, No. 667.

Letter from Government Solicitor to Government, 1st November 1859 No. 1,746.
Letter from Government Solicitor to Government, 29th February 1860, No. 166.
Proceedings of Government, Political Department, 3rd March 1890, No. 118.

1. With reference to the papers noted in the margin I have the honor to forward herewith a Conveyance from the Secretary of State for India in Council to Doctor James Shaw, of the premises at the Red Hills usually known as "Farren's Bungalow" and to request that it may be executed by the Governor (in Council) in accordance with the accompanying Instructions and then returned to me for delivery to Doctor Shaw, the purchaser.

2. I have prepared this Conveyance at the request of the purchaser, and consider it unobjectionable on the part of Government.

INSTRUCTIONS.

The date in the accompanying Conveyance having been filled up in words at length and not in figures, His Excellency the Governor should, in the presence of the Chief Secretary to Government, sign his name where it is now written in pencil opposite the seal and should afterwards put his finger on the seal and say "I deliver this as my act and deed."

The Chief Secretary to Government should then sign his name beneath the attestation where the letters "A B" are written in pencil and he should add his description.

His Excellency should also sign the receipt written at the foot of the Deed and the Chief Secretary should attest such signature.

No. 74. ORDER THEREON, 22nd June 1860, No. 387.

The Conveyance of the Premises referred to, having been duly executed, ordered that it be returned for delivery to Dr. James Shaw, the purchaser.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
