Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 8th September 1860.

No. 30. Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 8th September 1860, No. 541.

In paragraph 4 of their Proceedings dated 15th March last, No. 144, the Government, in reference to the large number of persons on the three Establishments of the late Tanjore Raj who had failed to come forward to claim their pensions or gratuities, directed that, as proposed by the Commissioner, the period within which parties interested were to be required to appear should be limited to three months, commencing from the date on which a notice to that effect appeared in the District Gazette; and further that should they fail to appear within this period without being able to assign satisfactory reason for their absence, they would be considered to have lost all claim to the pension or gratuity that might have been assigned to them.

2. The Government have received no report of the result of this measure; and they now desire that the Government Agent at Tanjore will furnish a Statement in the form appended, showing the total number that have been admitted to pension or gratuity (including those originally admitted,) and the number that have failed to appear within the above mentioned period, stating in each case the total amount of pensions and gratuities payable to the parties.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
