conducting the routine of correspondence (which was however not considerable) with the Darbar sions of about 30 Kandian Pensioners and about 287 Madhiargunam Stipendiaries, amounting in nsions as hereunder specified to the numerous Establishments of the late Tanjore Raj, together with connected has devolved on this Office. The former scale of the Office Establishment being ed to revise and augment the same as shewn in column 5.

8	17,619
3	11,246
7	1,974
1	470
2	31,309

3. Further, of the total number of 1,971 persons to whom gratuities amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 46,961 were assigned after the abolition of the Raj Establishment, 1,297 remain yet to be paid, the amount awarded to them being 25,598, and out of the number of servants &c. to whom pensions have been granted as shewn in the above table, 1,357 remain to be mustered and furnished with the usual descriptive rolls. For carrying on these two descriptions of work the temporary establishment entered in columns 8 and 9 is also necessary.

4. An Establishment conducted by an Officer termed the Serkele, is at present maintained in the Palace at a monthly cost of Rupees 351 for the purpose of supplying provisions to the mother and widows of the late Rajah and who connected with their domestic affairs. When the fixed allowances granted them are accepted e required and will be accordingly dispensed with. over, still remain to be performed, it is proposed after the abolition of his Establishment, to lumn 5, raising his salary to Rupees 200. This measure is essentially necessary to secure to the e responsibilities attendant thereon. of this Establishment, it may be mentioned that under the recent Orders of Government, dated nsioners has been transferred to the Revenue authorities but without any allowance for Establish-mplemented in fixing the reduced Revenue Establishments lately introduced, and as the number of it is simply impossible these payments can be made regularly and in due time, without the aid
