Dear Pycroft.

admiral Government

I suspect that there is something different in Govt. Order Sept 1860. No 544?

Read again letter from Commissioner at the dated 19 July 1860
and the proceedings
are dated the 11th Feb.
1861. No 544.

It is intended to communicate to the Council at Tanjore to Lalchman Kumbhar's
interest to myself;
to no one else.
The man's pension

September 1860. No 558.

The Govt. having in the proceedings of the District Collector's
the claim of the

Kumbhar's pension
hereditary service had not been established,
he could not be admitted to pension as the Zemindar pension was a means of getting from that Office, it was assumed that the pension of twenty Rs.
assigned to him as
on the 10th of August
but he connected with the same he communicated to the Office of the District.

part of pension

The General
Secretary
at Tanjore

is practically annulled by the order and information in that respect ought to be made to the Civil Auditor, Accountant General,
the Government about
all, together with myself and the f.
of 18 May 1860.
