The late Mahomed Ibrahim Deloyet was recommended for a gratuity of Rupees 19-8-0 which was sanctioned by Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 23rd July 1857, No. 537, he died on the 10th July of that year and prior to the sanction of a gratuity, and he therefore did not become entitled to any.

Government Agent at Chepauk.

No. 29. ORDER THEREON, 9th October 1860, No. 604.

Referred to the Chepauk Agent.

2. Muhammad Ibrahim, it appears, was one of those who were recommended for gratuity in the Agent's letter dated 19th May 1857, but, as he died before sanction was given, the gratuity was not disbursed. The Government consider that, as the claim was admitted, the amount should have been paid to the heirs of the deceased. This will now be done.

Chief Secretary.
