No. 46. Read the following Petition.

To the Right Honorable the Governor in Council,

Fort Saint George.

My Lord,

Your humble Petitioners Kreemoonnissa and Mohiddeen Begum a Jagheerdar of Sathumpauk respectfully show.

That one of their nearest heirs named Mohamed Nejeebkhan, who is husband to the one and nephew to the other being distressed to live without an employ intended to go to Hyderabad and look out for some situation, and as it was impossible for them to reside alone and therefore obliged to accompany him, they forwarded a Petition to the Collector of Madras by Vakeel Mohamed Jalaloodeen on the 4th of July 1859, requesting him of the permission and transposition of their pension to the Secunderabad Paymaster. On the 16th of the same month they left that for Hyderabad with him and were expecting to get there according to the request; but on their arrival at Hyderabad being disappointed of the idea they sent two petitions to the Collector abovementioned, the former was dated the 30th of November 1859, and the latter 14th of January 1860, asking him for the transposition of their pensions. The Collector's endorse is enclosed in this. In the first he says that he did not receive the Petition and that they will have come back to get their pensions.

Your humble Petitioners had forwarded a Petition to the Collector; it is not their fault if he has not received it, for, they were unable to pass it to the Collector without a Vakeel; so the fault must either be on the side of the Vakeel or the Moothasaddies and therefore it is quite evident that they could not be in the fault.

Considering with what laws the Moosulmen women are bound, it must be well known to your Lordship that their coming back for such a trifle is not only very expensive but it is also impossible with them to travel such a long distance "(being women and alone.)"

Your humble Petitioners therefore hope that your Lordship finding that they are faultless and pitying on them, will order the Collector to send their Pay Certificate to the Paymaster at Secunderabad, so that they will be able to draw their pension from him. For this act of benevolence and charity your humble Petitioners will for ever remain thankful and obliged to your Lordship.

Hyderabad,
29th April 1860.
