My dear Sir

By the order of Court which I read yesterday, No 781 15th June, Political Department, I observe that the Sub Treasurer is directed to disburse to Teekum Dass and Jumahsan Dass the Sum of 35,097 Rs. through their Solicitor Mr. Gordon in satisfaction of the Decree against Prince Azeem Jah.

On referring to the decree I find that the Prince is [illegible], and is debited

[illegible] the amount of his Jeeandah stipend.

ve the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Chief Secretary.

ordered to pay the money into the treasury to the credit of the Duke for the general purposes of the Post Office. Both Dop and Graham Dop are not the only creditors of the Prince's mother who are interested in this fund, and therefore I think you had better pass another order in accordance with the prayer of the Petition Dop
