Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 11th October 1861.

Read the following Petition :—

No. 24. To the Right Honorable the Governor General of India.

The humble Petition of MAHA DEVA ROW,
Sirdar Havildar in the Native Infantry of
His late Highness Maha Rajah of Tanjore.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,

That with due respect I beg to represent to your Lordship with full hope of obtaining justice from your Excellency.

I beg leave to state that when I proceeded to Benares on pilgrimage, I have purchased two pairs of shoes with different colours for Rupees 200, because they were made with pure gold, I have sold it to His late Highness Secvaje Mah Rajah of Tanjore, who ordered the Sirkeel to pay me the sum of Pagodas 100; he protracted from paying it to me and in the meantime, His late Highness departed this life. Afterwards when I demanded the Sirkeel to pay me the said sum he began to return other shoes, to which I told him that as they are not the shoes which I have sold to His late Highness, I will not take them; afterwards he sent them to the Police Officer of His late Highness to restore them to me and receive my receipt for it; he directed me to take them, I told him that I will not take them, because they are not belonged to me, thereupon I presented two Petitions to the Government Agent on the subject who referred them to the Police Ameen, he also said to take them—to which I refused to take them; upon the arrival of the Commissioner he published a Proclamation to all the debtors of the Rajah to appear and present Petitions, I then presented Petition to him, who also directed me to take them, to which I refused to take them.

I therefore humbly beg your Lordship will be pleased to cause an order to pay me the said sum, because I have purchased them on account of the Rajah and sold them to the Rajah.

For which act of justice I as in duty bound shall ever pray.

TANJORE,
