Proceedings of the Madras Government, Potitical Department, 24th July 1862.

No. 61. Read the following letter from G. LEE MORRIS, Esq., Officiating Government Agent, Tanjore; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Negapatam, 25th June 1862, No. 204.

I have the honor herewith to submit a communication addressed to me by Vazáratmáb Ry. Manappa Mohité, a nephew of His late Highness the Rájá of Tanjore, requesting that the stipend assigned by Government to his deceased mother M. Sulákshanábhái Ammani Rájá Sáhib, sister of the late Rájá, may be conferred on his son.

2. This request, in its present shape, is evidently inadmissible; and in making this reference, I do not mean to submit it for the consideration of Government. There is however another point connected with the case of the applicant as a Stipendiary of the late Ráj, on which I consider it necessary to solicit the decision of Government. Under the instructions contained in paragraphs 13 to 15 of the Proceedings of Government, under date the 5th December 1859, No. 705, the stipend of the applicant's mother descends in part for one generation, and as such, a moiety of it should come to the applicant, but as he is a Stipendiary, I wish to know whether the fact of his holding a stipend himself, is to be considered as a bar to his right to inherit a moiety of his deceased mother's stipend also.

3. The names of Mánappa Mohité and his mother will be found in Nos. 23 and 19 respectively of the list A, appended to Mr. Phillips' report recorded in the Proceedings of Government above adverted to, and it will be seen therefrom that the stipends assigned to them are respectively Rupees 3,120 and 3,633 per annum.* As Government are aware, Sulákshanábhái Ammani Rájá Sahib died on the 25th December 1859, and if her son's right to succeed to a moiety of her pension is recognized, it must of course take effect from that date.

*Per mensem, Rupees 260 and 302-12 respectively.

4. I would add that Manappa Mohité has not yet accepted his own stipend, and that it is therefore in arrears from February 1860, that being the date from which the arrangement of paying fixed stipends in money to the members of the late Rájá's family, was introduced.

From Vazarat Maub R. MANUPPA MOHITAY; to G. L. MORRIS, Esq., Acting Government Agent at Tanjore, dated 27th May 1862.

I beg leave to state that my grand-father His late Highness Serfojee Maharajah originally conferred separate allowances upon my late mother, my late father and myself as soon as I was born; and appointed for our services a sufficient number of servants, and also caused all sorts of cloths and other articles required for our daily and extra expenses for feasts, &c., to be furnished from the several Departments. My uncle His late Highness Seevajee Maharaja treated me in the same manner. But the allowance granted by the Government upon his demise to myself and my mother being too small for my expenses we did not draw the same as well as others. Being lately reduced to much troubles and distress by the death of my mother, I beg that you will be pleased to consider my rank and distress and by conveying the same to the notice of the Government, will have the goodness to order that the allowance of my late mother may be conferred upon my eldest son, and that his allowance and my own may be paid to us with the arrears due up to this time and that due assistance may be rendered to me for extra expenses as usual.

No. 62. ORDER THEREON, 24th July 1862, No. 289.

With this letter the Officiating Government Agent, Tanjore, submits a letter from Vazarat Maub R. Manuppa Mohitay, son of Soolutchana Bhozee Amany Rajah Sahib, eldest sister of the late Rajah of Tanjore, requesting that his late mother's stipend of 3,633 Rupees per annum may be granted to the applicant's eldest son.

2. The Agent while considering this request inadmissible, solicits the Orders of Government, as to whether Vazarat Maub R. Manuppa Mohitay is entitled to a moiety of his late mother's stipend under the instructions of Government contained in their Proceedings, dated 5th December 1859, No. 705, paragraphs 13 and 15.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department,
24th July 1862.

3. According to the rule therein laid down, a moiety of the stipend of the deceased Soolutchana Bhozee Amany Rajah Sahib would be continued to her son the present applicant, but as he himself, being a nephew of the late Rajah, has had granted to him a stipend of 3,120 Rupees per annum, the Agent is in doubt whether he is also entitled to the moiety of his mother's stipend.

4. Manuppa Mohitay has not hitherto accepted his own stipend, which is in arrears from February 1860. He now applies to receive the same with the arrears. As Soolutchana Bhozee Amany Rajah Sahib died on the 25th December 1859, if her son's right to succeed to the moiety of her stipend, is recognized, he will be entitled to the arrears from the date of his mother's demise.

5. The Government cannot accede to the request made by R. Manuppa Mohitay that his late mother's stipend should be bestowed on his eldest son, but recognize R. Manuppa Mohitay's right to the arrears of his own stipend and to the moiety of his mother Soolutchana Bhozee's stipend, from the 25th December 1859, the date upon which that lady died.

Acting Chief Secretary.
