FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from the Honorable E. DRUMMOND, Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to the Civil Paymaster, Bombay, dated Fort William, Council Chamber, the 7th August 1862, No. 93G.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 840, of the 7th ultimo, reporting, with reference to my No. 4,283, of the 21st June preceding, that, on the abolition of the office of Assistant Commissioner for Alienations, the Officer who held that appointment was employed by the Government of Bombay on the special duty of preparing Digests of expositions of the Hindoo and Mahomedan Laws, and enquiring whether the period during which he may be engaged on this duty should be reckoned as service qualifying for pension.

2. In reply, I am desired to observe that, in cases of this description, where loss of permanent employment is caused by abolition of office, temporary employment on special duty under the direct orders of Government should be regarded as a continuance of former service and counted towards pension.

No. 94G.

Ordered, that copies of the foregoing letter be forwarded for information and guidance to the Departments, Governments and Officers mentioned below:—

Foreign, Home, Military, Public Works, and Marine Departments.

Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and the Straits Settlements.
