Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department,
21st November 1862.

No. 34. Proceedings of Government, dated 21st November 1862, No. 461.

Adverting to the approaching visit of His Highness the Rajah of Travancore to Madras, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that the following arrangements shall be made for His Highness' reception.

- I. A house will be taken by Government in a convenient part of Madras and placed at His Highness' disposal during his stay. The Chief Secretary will arrange for its being suitably furnished. The Quarter Master General will furnish any tents that may be required.
- II. Two Carriages will be also engaged for His Highness' use.
- III. A guard of honor consisting of 100 Sepoys from the Regiment at Royapooram, with the usual complement of Officers will be posted at the Railway Terminus, at the time fixed for the arrival of the train, by which the Rajah may arrive at Madras, and on his arrival a salute of nineteen guns will be fired from the Saluting Battery. His Highness will be received at the station by the Chief Secretary, and with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, by an Officer on His Excellency's Staff.
- IV. With the permission also of His Excellency the Governor, an escort consisting of one Non-Commissioned Officer and four Privates of the Governor's Body Guard will be in readiness at the Railway Station to escort His Highness to his residence.
- V. During the Rajah's stay a Jemadar's guard furnished from one of the Native Infantry Regiments of the Garrison will be posted at his residence under the orders of the Officer Commanding the Centre Division. An escort consisting of one Non-Commissioned Officer and four Privates, Troopers of the Body Guard, will also be provided with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, to escort His Highness on the occasion of his visits to the various public Institutions in Madras.

Memorandum
for orders.

I submit a draft of orders to be issued with reference to the arrangements to be made for the reception of the Rajah of Bavancore.

2. I have conferred on the subject with the Rajah's Dewan, S. Madava
Row, who is now in Madras,
and have ascertained that
the arrangements proposed are such as will be agreeable to His Highness. One suggestion made by the Dewan in a note received from him this morning
viz. that the Body Guard
should escort the Rajah
from the Railway Station to his residence, I have

Memorandum for action.

Extract from Notification Foreign Department -
Camp Allahabad, Friday, 1st November 1861

On Tuesday, the 29th October, the Viceroy and Governor General admitted, successively, to a private interview the Maharajah of Gwalior, the Begum of Bhopal, the Maharajah of Puttiala, and the Nawab of Rampore.

This is an extract from a notification published in the Gazette of India. I presume that before it will decide the question of giving the Rajah of Rampore a Royal Salute in the recognition of his rank. He cannot well be treated with greater honor than was accorded to Scindia, or Serindia, but perhaps Bhopal may have the same viz 19 guns.

Scindia	19 Guns
Bhopal	19 "
Puttiala	17 "
Rampore	13 "

by R.
