To Mundalasawmy and Bhagheeraty Dance for 6 months at Rupees 16-10-8 each per mensem..... 200 0 0
Total Rupees.. 920 0 0

2. I would further with the permission of Government depute a Peon of my office to accompany the Ex-Queen as far as the limits of this District, and request the Collectors of South Arcot and Tanjore to show similar attention during the progress of the party through their respective Districts.

To R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector of North Arcot, and in charge of Stipendiaries at Vellore, dated 5th March 1863.

The respectful address of PEDDASAMULA, 3rd Queen of the late Ex-King of Kandy, named VIKEREMA SIMMALA, Maha Rajah.

HONORED SIR,

I respectfully beg leave to state that my elder sister the 1st Ex-Queen of Kandy at Tanjore is far advanced in age and is likewise sickly. In order to visit her, I, my adopted son, and my grand-daughters, namely one Mundalasawmy and one Bhageeraty Dauce, have determined to set out for Tanjore at 6 o'clock A. M., of the 11th proximo, for which I respectfully solicit that you will be pleased to apply to the Government to grant us a leave of absence for six months from the date abovementioned, with sanction for a usual advance of stipends of three of us for six months, amounting to Rupees 920; 2 Daloyets, 2 Hurkarahs, and 4 Police Constables instead of Taluq Peons formerly allowed to accompany us for our protection and guard, and to issue out orders to the authorities along the line of our road to Tanjore, namely, Arnee, Daisoor, Tindivenum, Vikkara Paundi, Punnurutti, Punnanoor, Meensurutti, Unikarey, and Combaconum, to cause supplies being given us and care being taken of us.

And I beg leave to be confident of your recommendation to the Government to comply with my earnest requests above dictated without exception.
