Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 4th February 1863.

No. 3. Read the following letter from G. LEE MORRIS, Esq., Officiating Government Agent at Tanjore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Vallam, 20th January 1863, No. 13.

I have the honor to report, for the information of Government, that in the Budget Estimate of charges connected with the Government Agency for the current official year 1862-63, sanctioned by the Government of India, a sum of Rupees 1,00,000 has been allowed for the commutation of the pensions of the late Tanjore Ráj, which, with Rupees 6,540-6-0 the balance of a similar allotment made for the last official year, and placed* at the disposal of the Government Agent for expenditure during the current year, makes a total of Rupees 1,06,540-6-0.

* Vide Proceedings of Government, 12th April 1862, No. 146.

2. Hitherto, during the current year, pensions have been commuted only to the extent of Rupees 17,592-6, thus leaving a large balance of Rupees 88,948. This balance will not, in my opinion, be expended if the commutation of pensions is restricted within the limit prescribed in the order of Government marginally noted, viz., to pensions of Rupees 2 and under per mensem. There is moreover, I find, a further sum of Rupees 90,000 allowed under this head in the Budget for the coming official year 1863-64.

Dated 13th October 1860, No. 609.

3. I beg therefore to request the Government to inform me, whether they have any objection to the limit above specified being enlarged, and if they have none, whether they will allow me to extend it to pensions of 4 Rupees per mensem.

No. 4. ORDER THEREON, 4th February 1863, No. 40.

It is observed that by paragraph 3 of the Orders of Government, dated 20th April 1860, No. 242, the commutation of Tanjore pensions was limited to sums not exceeding (5) five Rupees a month, but that in the particular instances adverted to in the 2nd paragraph of the foregoing letter, when it was proposed to disburse so large an amount as Rupees 1,17,996-12-0 in commutation of such pensions, the Government fixed the limit at Rupees (2) two per mensem.

2. The Officiating Agent is therefore at liberty to receive and submit for the orders of Government any applications which may be made to him for the commutation of stipends under the former limitation of (5) five Rupees a month.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
