Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 8th January 1863.

No. 6. Read the following Abstract of Petition from PYELWAN SAHIB of Madras, dated 28th November 1862.

Submitting several endorsements of the Agent, prays that as His Highness Prince Azeem Jah owes him certain sum of money as per his acknowledgment, Petitioner may be permitted under Section 1, Act 39 of 1858, to sue him in the Court for the recovery of the said sum.

No. 7. ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1863, No. 4.

The Petitioner solicits the permission of Government to bring a suit against His Highness Prince Azeem Jah for the recovery of Rupees 1,700 with interest, towards the liquidation of which Rupees 85 appear to have been paid. The justice of the claim seems to be acknowledged by His Highness, but no further steps have been taken for its adjustment beyond the payment of the small instalment mentioned.

2. On several former occasions the Government have been pleased to permit similar demands to be paid from the undrawn arrears of His Highness' stipend, but in their Proceedings of the 4th ultimo, No. 483, they instructed the Chepauk Agent to intimate to His Highness that such a course could not be again followed, and that His Highness should therefore draw the arrears due to him and his current stipend, and satisfy all just claims upon him.

3. Major Wilson will now address the Prince on the subject of the present demand, informing him that the Government will have no alternative but to grant the authority requested by the Petitioner, in the event of His Highness failing to satisfy him.

4. His Highness' answer should be reported to Government without delay.
