Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 11th March 1863.

No. 13. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. WOOD, Bart., Secretary of State for India; to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated India Office, London, 24th January 1863, No. 2.

1. Having considered in Council the Petition of Abdoollah Khan (forwarded to you with my Secret Despatch of 10th July (No. 1) 1862), and your opinion thereon, as stated in your secret letter, dated 30th August, No. 1 of 1862, I have to inform you that, adverting to the distressed condition of the applicant, and the moderate amount of the pension originally allotted to him, Her Majesty's Government do not think it necessary any longer to enforce the condition of residence imposed upon him, and are willing, therefore, that Abdoollah Khan should be permitted to draw his pension of Rupees 133 per month, with arrears, in Persia, and I have to request that you will pay the amounts, as they may become due, to his receipt, countersigned by the British Minister in Persia.

2. I have requested Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to communicate this decision to Abdoollah Khan, through the Minister at Teheran. Should he prefer residing at Baghdad, the signature of the British Agent would suffice.

No. 14. ORDER THEREON, 11th March 1863, No. 73.

Resolved that a copy of the foregoing Despatch be furnished to the Government Agent at Chepauk, with reference to his letter in the Secret Department, dated 11th August last, No. 1; and also to the Civil Paymaster and Accountant General.

2. On the application of Abdoollah Khan, arrangements will be made for the payment of his stipend of Rupees 133* per mensem, to his receipt countersigned by the British Minister or Agent at the place which he may select to reside at and draw his pension. In the meantime the Accountant General will report whether it will be necessary to apply to the Government of India for an additional grant to meet the large amount of arrears payable to Abdoollah Khan from the 27th October 1850, the date of his father's death.

* Sanctioned in Ex. Min. of Con., dated 5th August 1851, No. 325.

Chief Secretary.
