GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 85. Read the following letter from Captain F. H. TYRRELL, Government Agent and Paymaster of Carnatic Stipends, Chepauk, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Chepauk, 31st March 1874, No. 110:—

I have the honour to forward a petition to the address of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council signed by the members of the family of the late Rashid-ul-Dowlah Bahadoor praying for a continuation of his stipend to them.

2. Rashid-ul-Dowlah was a Shadi son of the Nàwab Azim-ul-Dowlah, who was raised to the Carnatic Musnud by the British Government in 1801 (upon his agreeing to make over the administration and revenues of the Carnatic to the Honourable East India Company) to the exclusion of the elder branch of the family. His mother was Azim-ul-Nissa Begum, the second Shadi wife of the Nàwab. After her husband's death this lady was allowed Rupees 2,000 by his successors, the Nàwabs Azim Jah and Ghulam Mahommed Ghouse Khan, for the support of herself and her family. On her death the late Nàwab continued a pension of Rupees 800 a-month to her son, Rashid-ul-Dowlah. Subsequently a further allowance of Rupees 200 per mensem was granted to him for the support of certain dependents of his mother. When, on the death of the Nàwab Ghulam Mahommed Ghouse Khan in 1855, the affairs of his family were arranged by the Government, a Carnatic stipend of Rupees 2,000 was granted to Rashid-ul-Dowlah by orders of the Government of India, No. 6321, dated 31st December 1856. Afterwards by G.O., No. 92, of 11th May 1872, he was granted an increase of Rupees 700 per mensem on the understanding that this increase on his original stipend was a life-grant only. He died on the 17th of January 1874.

3. By the rules laid down by Extract Minutes of Consultation, No. 332, dated 4th October 1856, paragraph 4, Political Department, a reduced allowance of not more in the aggregate than a moiety of the lapsed stipend may be continued, at the discretion of the Government of Madras, to such descendants and relations of immediate members of the late Nàwab's family as were supported from the stipend of the deceased. As the 700 Rupees granted to Rashid-ul-Dowlah Bahadoor to assist him to pay off his debts by G.O., No. 92, of 11th May 1872, was commanded to lapse at his death, I dismiss it from consideration and have the honour to recommend a continuation of Rupees 1,000 per mensem or a moiety of the original stipend to his family. In the list herewith forwarded for approval I have distributed this sum to the relatives of the deceased Bahadoor according to Lord Clive's scale, which I think will make a fair division of the stipend among the various members of the family.

4. In paragraph 2 above I have alluded to an allowance of Rupees 200 granted to Rashid-ul-Dowlah Bahadoor for the maintenance of some dependents of his mother. This sum, or portions of it, he continued to disburse to the survivors among these dependents up to the day of his death. These survivors, who are twenty-nine in number, have petitioned me for the continuance of the allowances paid to them. As these pensions were guaranteed to them by the Carnatic Sirkar I have thought myself justified in recommending a continuation of them. I forward a list of their names with their pensions, amounting, in the aggregate, to Rupees 74-8-0 per mensem, and solicit that orders may be passed granting these allowances to them from the date of the death of Rashid-ul-Dowlah Bahadoor.

To, The Honorable D. J. Carmichael
M.A. Secretary to Government
Fort St. George

Sir, I have the honor to forward a Petition to the address of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council signed by the members of the family of the late Rashid-ul-Daula Bahadur praying for a continuation of his stipend to them.

Rashid-ul-Daula was a Shad son of the Nawab Asim-ul-Daula who was raised to the Carnatic Masnad by the British Government in 1808 upon his agreeing to make over the administration and revenues of the Carnatic to the Honorable East India Company to the exclusion of the elder branch of the family: This mother was Azim ul Nissa Begum the 2nd & last wife of the Nawab. After her husband's death this lady was allowed Rupees 2000 by his successors the Nawabs Azim Jafar and Ghulam Muhammad Khans for the support of herself and her family. On her death the late Nawab continued a pension of Rupees 1000 a month to her son Rasheed ul Daula. Subsequently further allowance of Rupees 200 per mensem was granted to him for the support of certain dependants of his mother.

On the death of the Nawab Ghulam Mohammed Khan in 1855 the affairs of the family were arranged by the Government and a pension of Rupees 2000 was

was granted to Rasheed ul Daula by orders of the Government of India No 321 dated 31st December 1856.
Afterwards by G.O. No 92 of 11th Feb 1872 he was granted an increase of Rupees 700 per mensem on the understanding that this increase on his original spend was a Life grant only. He died on the 17th of January 1874.
But the rules laid down by the Com. in Council dated 14th October 1874 para 4, Political Department a reduced allowance of not more in the aggregate than a moiety of the lapsed stipend may be continued at the discretion of the Government of Madras to such descendants and relations of immodiate members of the late Nawab's family as were supported from the stipend.

stipend of the deceased B. As the 700 Rupees granted to Rashid ul Daula Bahadur to assist him to pay off his debts by G.O. N: 92 of 11th May 1872 was commanded to lapse at his death I dismiss it from consideration and have the honor to recommend a continuation of Rupees 1000 per mensem or a moiety of the original stipend to his family. In the list herewith forwarded for approval I have distributed this sum to the relatives of the deceased Bahadur according to Lord Elphinstone's scale which I think will make a fair division of the stipend among the various members of the family.

In para 2 above I have alluded to an allowance of Rupees 200 granted to Rashid ul Daula Bahadur for

for the maintenance of some dependants of his mother. This sum or portion of it be continued to disburse to the survivors among these dependants up to the day of his death.
These survivors who are 29 in number have petitioned me for the continuance of the allowances paid to them. As these pensions were guaranteed to him by the Zamindari I have thought myself justified in recommending a continuation of them. I forward a list of their names with their pensions amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 74-8- per mensem and I solicit that orders may be passed granting these allowances to

To them from the date of the death of Rashid ul Daula Bahadur.
