No. 6. Read the following letter from Captain F. H. TYRRELL, Government Agent at Chepauk, and Paymaster of Carnatic Stipends, to the Honourable D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Chepauk, 19th May 1874, No. 192 :—

I have the honour to state, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, with reference to G. O. of 9th May 1874, No. 190, requesting information as to the following points,

1*stly*.—Why the Agent has proposed to give more to those persons who used to receive allowances from the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah than they respectively received from him, and

2*ndly*.—Why it is proposed to give nothing at all to the Nickah sons of the deceased stipendiary, that, firstly, in recommending a continuation of two-thirds of the stipend of the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah to his family I must either increase the amounts of the allowances to be paid to the co-sharers in the stipend or unduly increase the shares of the members of Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah's immediate family as I shall presently show.

The total amount paid to the co-sharers at the time of the death of the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah was Rupees 365 per mensem in the event of a continuation of two-thirds of the stipend or Rupees 1,332 being made, and if these co-stipends were not increased the balance of Rupees 957 would fall to be divided among Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah's immediate family, who would then get not only more than their fair share of the family stipend, but much more than they ever got or would have got from the stipend during the life-time of their father. They would be placed in a much better position than their cousins of other branches of the family who have an equal and, in some cases, a superior right to a share in this stipend, for there are persons third in descent from the original holder among the co-sharers while Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah's children are fourth in descent.

The stipend of Rupees 2,000 per mensem was continued to the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah as the head of the family for the support of the whole family, and, if the pension had been then divided among all the members of the family according to the established scale, his own pension would not have been more than Rupees 250 per mensem. He soon attempted to divert the greater part of the family pension to his own personal use, and, after years of incessant dispute both with Government and with the rest of the family, his untiring perseverance was crowned with success, the distribution of 1849, which finally, or at least till now, set the question at rest, being certainly prejudicial to the right of the co-sharers.

Thus, for instance, to Muhammadi Begum, own sister of Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah, who should, according to Lord Clive's scale, have received one-half of her brother's own share, a share of Rupees 61 was allotted in the distribution while Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah netted Rupees 1,142-4-0 out of the stipend. But by that time the co-sharers were only too glad to get anything at all out of the stipend.

I am very averse to disturbing any existing arrangements made by my predecessors, who had more experience than I have ; but in this case it appears to me desirable to increase these co-stipends, for to give large allowances to the children of Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah from the very stipend which he filched from his other relatives and at the same time to continue much smaller sums to those relatives would not be equitable and the total amount now recommended by me to the families of the co-sharers in the stipend is actually less than the amount granted to them by the Distribution List of 1849. In every case in which he found it possible, Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah, on the death of a co-sharer, incorporated the greater part of the co-stipend with his own stipend, and in some instances the heirs of the co-sharers refused to receive anything from him rather than put up with the pittance which he offered to them.

It may perhaps be imagined that the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah spent the greater part of the allowance of Rupees 1,635, which he received for his own use, upon his own family; but he did not, unless it was upon his Nickah family at Hyderabad. If the allowances actually made by him to the members of his family be adhered to in the distribution, then his eldest Shadi son, Shaji-ul-Mulk, would get nothing at all, for he used to make no allowance to him because he was already in receipt of a pension as a Chief Officer of the late Nàwab, and, though he nominally allowed Rupees 60 a-month to his second son, Dilir Jung, for some time previous to his death the allowance remained unpaid. I believe that the sums recommended by me for continuation to the members of the immediate family of Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah will in every instance exceed the amounts received by them during his life-time.

I consider that two courses are open—one, to make a continuation from this pension on the basis of In statu quo, granting only to each person the co-stipend guaranteed to them by the Distribution List of 1849, or to the heirs of original co-sharers the amounts actually paid to them by Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah during his life-time, and proportionate stipends to his own immediate family, which will amount in all to about one-third of the stipend of Rupees 2,000; or secondly, to adopt the distribution previously recommended of two-thirds of the entire stipend.

Secondly, the reason that I have recommended no continuation to the two Nickah sons of the deceased stipendiary is that they receive sufficient allowances from the Government of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad, where they reside, as shown in the column of Remarks in the Distribution List forwarded by me. I do not think it necessary for our Government to grant pensionary allowances to these young men, who are in the employ of a foreign State. The Nickah wife and daughter of the deceased at Hyderabad have also not been recommended by me for pensions because they draw pensions from the Nizam's treasury.

PROPOSED Distribution List of the sum of Rupees 1,332 per mensem recommended to be continued to the Family of the late Sir Shurf-ul-Omrah Bahadur, son of Shurf-ul-Omrah Bahadur, son of Dileir Jung Shikoh-ul-Mulk, son of Abdul Wahab Khan, brother of Nàwab Wallajah, (submitted to Government with the letter from Government Agent at Chepauk, No. 42, dated 4th February 1874).

S-O-No. 231-375-& June 1874 - Political

Political Department,

No. 218.

From The Govt. Agent, Chepâk

Dated 19 May 1874.

FOR ORDERS.

I think that I will have seen Syud Nasoor before this letter is received. He just came to Ulan. I am not sure about the Turkish loan. I am prepared to say that I have heard nothing about it and that I suppose it will be paid punctually. I do not think that I can do more in such case.
