[illegible] the pay of a Corps of Pensioners the post of Colonel in the Service of the Rajah of Travancore

That after the demise of the petitioners grandfather the late Rajah made a Sunnud under date the 12th April 1813 in favour of the petitioners mother in the name of her father for the support of the family of the petitioners grandfather the late Rajah of [illegible] the petitioners mother precluded her from expressing for an enhancement of this pension until the year when Compelled to Contract this demand of 1/2 Lack which was left on the petitioners account and that the Sunnud for the full pension was granted in the petitioners name under date the 9th September 1818 The deceased finding it impossible to [illegible] date the debt in this Country applied for more than double the Sunnud for an increase of pension for the petitioner obtained a grant from Government in the name of the late Rajah for the support of the family of the petitioners grandfather the late Rajah of [illegible] during his tenure of office and temporarily of which he there by [illegible] his misfortune The Court declined to grant the concession petitioned for and finding that the petitioner was heavily involved in debt to the Company Government the deceased determined that of securing his fortune in another State, the deceased proceeded to Hyderabad where he has Personal Claims the Hereditary Office of Peishcar & Sirdar the Nizam Government which office he was then in receipt of the Pension Granted to the deceased by the late Rajah of Raja Rajagan Raja of Travancore and Pazandey Bahadur Senior Minister of State and member of the Council of the Rajah But before the order came into operation the Ministry was changed and the deceased was obliged to quit Travancore During his residence there he contracted such debts as nearly reduced him to want he returning hastily and Commenced with a Royal family

Now it is clear that the petitioner has not only now to support the numerous family that he was left to provide for according to the Sunnud by Government but has also to liquidate the debts contracted by his deceased father

That circumstances connected with his family and his connection with the Travancore Government as stated will be fairly evidenced by a reference to the accompanying printed Petitions &c.

Under these circumstances petitioner prays that your Honour being a benefactor of the poor and helpless will be pleased to submit his case to the most favourable Consideration of the Honourable and Hon. Court of Directors for the continuance in his name of the full pension enjoyed by his deceased father for the support of himself and other surviving heirs of the deceased and for arrears of pension Cases petitioner [illegible] that neither the forefathers home left an [illegible] should be in the shape of an immovable property nor that known the forevoiding an any jewel or coin in the shape of an immovable property for the support of the family than the portion already specified for.

If the concession specified for be granted, petitioners pray to receive yearly honor that he would maintain one and all of the members of the family to the best of his ability and station.

And which act of kindness and charity petitioners shall as in duty bound ever pray for your Excellency's long life, good health and daughter prosperity

Petitioners
pray

Ghulam Ahmed was killed on the 15th January 1895 and his pension was continued in full to his son Sayed Ghulam Ahmed Khan, now deceased, in consideration of the Sayed family and heavy debts left by Ghulam Hussain vide G.C. Pokhal No. 563 dated 9th December 1895. Sayed Ghulam Ahmed Khan died on the 29th January last of cholera, leaving a widow, a daughter aged three, his mother and a number of dependents.
It is recommended that Rs 52½, or half the pension may be granted to the widow for the support of the family.

The deceased's brother Burkhurdar Ahmed Khan requests that the pension be granted in his name, but he is a

Sub Inspector of Police at Trichinopoly and I fear that if the request were granted he would give up his appointment and live on his pension and I prefer, therefore, to give the pension to the widow.
