No. 36 of 1885 Chepauk 21st January 1885

From,

Lieutenant Colonel C. D. Bayne
In charge of the Government Estate
Chepauk

To,

The Honorable C. F. Wheeler
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George

Sir,

I have the honor to invite reference to my report of 11th July 1884, No. 311, enclosed in G.O. of 29th July 1884, No. 499.

2. Since submitting the distribution list annexed to my letter, I have learnt that No. 1 on that list Mayat-un-nisa Begum has to support some female dependents of her late husband which she cannot possibly do on her share of the sum continuable from his lapsed stipend.

3. Taking into consideration the fact of his having been the Rickab son of Sh-ud-daulah, the 1st Sultan Nawab, I think his above widow might be exceptionally treated, and I therefore beg that a compassionate

vance of Rupees (24-0-0) Twenty-four mouseem be granted to her in addetion to stipend of Rs. 16, which will enable to support herself and those whose maintenance has been thrown upon by her husbands' death.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
