POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. C. HANNYNGTON, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trivandrum, 10th October 1885, No. 119.

Adverting to the order of Government, dated 3rd August last, Mis. No. 524, I have the honor to forward, herewith, copy of a letter, No. S. 217, of the 22nd ultimo, from the Dewan of Travancore, regarding the settlement of the boundary of the Anjengo backwater.

ENCLOSURE.

From V. RAMIENGAR, Esq., C.S.I., Dewan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 22nd September 1885, No. S. 217.

I have the honor to acknowledge your memorandum, No. 816, dated the 13th ultimo, forwarding a copy of the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Mis. No. 524, dated 3rd idem.

2. A map drawn up by a Deputy Collector so recently as 1870, without the knowledge and consent of His Highness' Government, can scarcely be accepted as authoritative in settling the boundary in question; and the map, it will be noted, is at variance with our old ayacut accounts, which clearly give the backwater as the boundary of the Kottadilly farm.

3. The best way, perhaps, of settling the boundary under the circumstances is to follow the rule generally observed in determining the boundary between two States where a river intervenes, viz., to take the middle line of the water as the line of demarcation between the two. This, as you know, is the course followed in the settlement of the disputes between Travancore and Cochin.

ORDER—dated 6th November 1885, No. 787, Political.

The proposal made by the Dewan of Travancore is approved for adoption. Seeing that the boundary line runs up the middle of the backwater, the proposal contained in Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 1825, dated 18th June 1885, viz., that the Travancore boundary stones should be placed on the Travancore side of the backwater, seems unnecessary. Both Governments, however, should have equal rights to search all boats afloat and in transit on the river, but not boats hauled up on shore.
