Dear Sir

I am desired by the Duke of Wellington to request that you will be so good as to call at the Horse Guards on Monday next at 12 o'clock precisely, when his Grace will be ready to receive you.

I am, Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant
J. Macdonald

P.S.

Lord Hill desires me to say that he is anxious to see you at the Horse Guards on Monday next at 12 o'clock precisely.

Will do very well I think — it is a mere temporary expedient — till they can arrange things for themselves. They must have things ready for them in this country by 12-12-85

Official Memorandum.

Dated the 12th Decr. 1885.

The undersigned is directed to inform Messrs Deschamps & Co. that the party which will occupy the Mansion will consist of one male personage and two female personages and two children, all of high rank; six officers of rank and seventeen female attendants.

The party consists of the Ex-King of Burma and his attendants, an intimation which Government will be obliged if Messrs Deschamps will kindly consider as confidential until their arrival. To know of whom the party consists will probably assist Messrs Deschamps in making arrangements which should be of a character suitable in every respect to the very high rank of the occupants of the house
