Report No 159

The Petitioner is a third life pensioner on the reserved list: I understand him.

I. to request a marriage allowance for his son by his fifth wife.

This boy is only twelve years of age and might not to marry for the next eight years.

Petitioner states he has never had a marriage allowance for any of his children: It appears that in 1875 he applied for a loan of Rs 2000 for his and daughter's wedding and that Government allowed Rs 500 only, which sum I cannot ascertain was ever borrowed. From the nature of this request I infer that Petitioner being a third life pensioner was aware that no ceremonial allowance was payable in respect of subsequent marriages, such as his children or grandchildren would be.

II. Petitioner also asks Government to arrange for the studies of his grandsons.

These boys are reading at Nagapatnam under Venkatasami Raja's care:

M^r. Mitterbotham's report of 6th August 1893 says of them "their father has a good income and the Wesleyan College offers as good an education as they could desire.

They do not take advantage of these opportunities, and I see no way in which any additional facilities can be afforded them.
