GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS
15 FEB 95
SECRETARIAT

Sir,

I am desired to inform you that the Governor of Ceylon has instructed Mr. F. J. Waring, C.M.G. the Chief Resident Engineer of the Railway Construction works in this Island, to examine and report upon so much of the connection between India and Ceylon, known as Adam's Bridge, as lies within Ceylon, with a view to the probable eventual consideration of any practical proposal for railway communication between the Continent and this Island.

2. In pursuance of these instructions, it may be desirable that Mr Waring should land on Rameseram and make some enquiry or examination /
