To

The CHIEF SECRETARY to GOVERNMENT,
Political Department,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

In reply to para 2 of G.O. dated 23d November 1894, № 831, Political, I have the honor to state that the best houses in Mangalore are already occupied. There are however two bungalows in one compound near my Office belonging to one Narasaya Shanbogue, which might do. The larger of the two has been just renovated at some cost. It contains two large bedrooms and one large sitting room besides two smaller rooms which might be used as sitting rooms. The smaller bungalow contains two large rooms. It is at present very dirty, but the owner is willing to clean it up, and effect some repairs of which it stands in need. The houses are situated on a raised ground overlooking the sea and would get whatever breeze there is. The two Bungalows might be rented for Rs 100, or Rs 120 a month.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obed^t. Servant

The accommodation which the Collector of S. Canara reports to be available in bungalow is apparently insufficient. The small bungalow might do for the Police Officer in charge, but the large one contains only two bedrooms and three sitting rooms, two of the latter being small. Mr: Drew, Collector of Ratnagiri reported* that the exking and his party would require a bungalow with at least four bed rooms and four sitting rooms. The bungalow (W) which Mr. Moberly stated (vide his letter in G.O. 831 / 23.11.94 orig.) was available at Carnarvon had contains on the upper floor 2 bed rooms, 2 sitting rooms and one room which could be used as either a bed room or a sitting room, and on the ground ~~upper~~ floor ~~and~~ a dining room a bed room and bath-room and two other rooms which could be converted into bed or sitting rooms ~~on the ground floor~~. Besides there was a small house attached to it for servants, the Police officer being provided with a bungalow. This accommodation was considered unsuitable (vide letter from C.W. of Ratnagiri on page 7 of G.O. 8/25. ~~There is no~~ all the good houses in Calicut are occupied (G.O. 907 21.12.94).

Submitted that the Govt. of India be informed, in reply to its telegram printed on page 1 of G.O. 8 2.3.11.94, no 831, that no suitable place for the residence of the Ex-king and party is available either in Malabar or South Canara.

C.S. 27/12 The accommodation available is shortly insufficient

28/12

I would tell India that as matters now stand, the accommodation at the best places on the West Coast is insufficient, but that if necessary of course the requisite buildings could be erected.
