Intimates that the Government will not take part in "The Empire of India Exhibition" to be held in London in 1895.

W. H. L. for Under Secretary to Govt.

To The Political Dept.

Government of India Central Printing Office.—No. 872 R. & A.—3-1-95.—876.—J. W. D'B.

No. 38, dated New Bridge Street, London, E. C., the 7th September 1894.

From—J. ELLIS, Esq., Secretary, The Empire of India Exhibition,

To—The Under-Secretary of State for India.

I HAVE the honour to state, for the information of the Secretary of State for India, that a Company registered as the "London Exhibitions, Limited" has decided to commence an annual series of exhibitions at Kensington, with one devoted to the arts and manufactures of the people of India, to be opened early in May 1895.

For this proposed series of exhibitions the Company has purchased the lease of the extensive grounds of the District Railway Company at Earl's Court, Kensington, one of the most central and best known sites in London, and has entered into contracts for the erection of handsome and spacious buildings for the proper installation of exhibits, the present very scattered buildings not being considered either suitable or worthy of the special exhibitions now contemplated.

As the first exhibition will be an elaborate illustration of the Arts and Industries of India, this Company is most solicitous that it shall in every way reflect credit upon Her Majesty's Indian Empire. Very carefully considered arrangements are being made for the arrangement of a number of Indian artizans representative of the leading handicrafts and manufactures of that country. It is intended to instal these work-people in an artistic reproduction of some Indian streets, a market-place, bazaar, etc., somewhat like the Indian Palace of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition of 1886, which proved such a constant source of interest and instruction to many millions of the British public; but on a far more extensive and magnificent scale.

It is with special reference to this employment of natives of India at the exhibition that I am asked to address you. The Company wishes to take every possible precaution to ensure the comfort and well-being of the workers whilst in this country, and any advice or assistance the Government of India may be able to give the Company in this direction will be most gratefully received.

I am also to state that no pecuniary help is required from Government, and that the Company being composed of commercial men, they are of opinion that goods with the Indian retail prices affixed should not be exhibited, as this practice at past exhibitions has been found most detrimental to the interests of the Indian producers and to the importers, and for this reason no Government priced collections are desired.

The value of the exhibitions in developing trade is practically demonstrated by the immense increase in the consumption of Indian grown teas, which can be directly traced to the great and deserved stimulus given to them by their thorough representation at the Paris Exhibition of 1878. This Company is convinced that many other products of India only require to be better known to command equal success, and with this object in view they beg to state that they have decided to place at the disposal of the Government of India or any syndicate of planters or merchants which may be recommended by Government, a large and prominent space at the forthcoming exhibition for a thorough scientific and commercial representation of Indian tobacco, both in the raw state and in the process of manufacture.

In conclusion, I am to express the hope that the contemplated exhibition will favourably commend itself to the Secretary of State for India, and that the Government of India may be informed accordingly.
